

BUCKINGHAM PALACE

7th November, 2007

Dear Jon,

The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh have asked me to write to thank you and everyone involved in their excellent visit yesterday to launch High Speed 1 and re-open St. Pancras International Station. Her Majesty and His Royal Highness know how much time and effort go into organising an event such as this, and I would be grateful if you could pass on their thanks to all those who had a part to play in its success. I know that you worked very hard Jon to ensure that the occasion ran smoothly and your hard-work certainly paid dividends as it was a very enjoyable and memorable evening.

This letter comes to you and everyone at London & Continental Railways with The Queen's and The Duke of Edinburgh's warm good wishes.

Yours sincerely
Edward Young
